A Time to Give Thanks

As we head into the busy holiday season, I'd like to pause and give thanks. Thanks to the members of District 24 for taking the opportunity to invest in themselves by renewing their Toastmasters dues. Thanks to the new members who have joined Toastmasters for the very first time, and thanks to their mentors for volunteering to coach these new members through their first three speeches!

To our Area Governors - thank you for your hard work these past few months organizing and holding your area speech contests. What an amazing display of talent that was showcased because of your efforts! Thank you also for reaching out to your clubs, making club visits, and offering your coaching assistance as you lead these clubs to status!

distinguished status! Please remember to report these visits online no later than Nov. 30th so you get on-time credit toward the Distinguished Area Program.

To our Division Governors - thank you for your leadership and guidance as you held division council meetings this quarter. These meetings give you the opportunity to create synergy between your area governors so they can share ideas and learn from one another. Thank you also for hosting division speech contests, preparing our contestants for the final Humorous and Evaluation contests at the fall conference. What an exciting time!

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You to Lieutenant Governors Sheri Wells-Chesley and Kathy Henvey. First quarter district business is outrageously crazy, but these ladies have been amazing! July shot us right into TLI season and both Sheri and Kathy helped facilitate all six sessions! August had the trio on the road to Las Vegas for a grueling seven days of training, elections, speech contests and more training! September had no time to slack as these two were marketing for new clubs, holding demo meetings, chartering clubs, holding charter parties, conference planning, attending area speech contests AND creating the district budget! Whew - and to think - they "volunteered" for this?

A special thank you goes out to my executive committee. Cyndi Hansen, the district treasurer is now on my speed dial! Learning a new district financial system, balancing accounts and answering a myriad of new district governor "budget" questions I'm sure has Cyndi wishing she could change her phone number! Speaking of budgeting - keep your eyes posted to the Double Dozen to see what great incentives the district will be offering for members who achieve education awards and those who sponsor in new members. Lots of exciting challenges will be announced soon!

What do you think of the new Double Dozen? Amazing, isn't it?! The credit and a huge "thank you" go out to our district's public relations officer, Lisa McFarland. It was Lisa's vision to expand the existing district newsletter with a new attractive format, which we love! One of my favorite additions is having a different division featured each month. Such a great way to showcase what is going on in the district and to engage our members. Awesome job Lisa!

Toastmaster Chris Pratt is just about to see what being the district secretary is all about! Be sure to stop by at the fall conference and congratulate Chris on his new position. Keeping order and meeting minutes at the first District Executive Council meeting will keep Chris plenty busy, but I'm sure he'll have time to meet you and say "hi". It will give Chris the opportunity to put faces to the names of our district members. Thanks, Chris, for agreeing to hold this very important leadership position!

Finally as we begin this holiday season, let us give thanks to Dr. Ralph Smedley for holding the first meeting of Number One Toastmasters Club at Santa Ana, California, on Oct.22, 1924. Dr. Smedley said, "Ours is the only organization I know dedicated to the individual." So thanks to all of you, the individuals that help make up District 24! What an honor and a privilege to be part of such an incredible organization!

Toastmasters - Where Leaders are Made!

Monthly Challenge: Give a Toastmasters Presentation

Toastmasters offers many "canned" presentations as part of the Successful Club Series, Leadership Excellence Series, Success/Communication Series, and Success/Leadership Series. Whether you are a club officer helping educate your club members or an individual member working towards an advanced award, these presentations are a great way share information with your fellow Toastmasters!

Area Governor Tom Colling presented "The Art of Effective Evaluation," a program from the Success/Communication Series, on Oct. 4. In addition to helping members from three different Toastmasters clubs improve their evaluation skills, Tom will receive credit towards his Advanced Communicator Gold Award. Toastmasters from L to R: Ryan Baum, William Bryan IV, Scott Frenk, Tom Colling, Randy Baker, Marilyn Berman, Debbie Newhouse, Mike McCollum, Kayla Petersen, Michelle Hack, Stacy Blocher and Pat Hannan.

There is still time to register for the conference on-line at www.d24tm.org. If you have questions contact Erin Farmer at (712) 242-6224 or erinwfarmer@gmail.com. I know that we will reach the goal of having at least 150 attendees at the conference which equates to two members per club – definitely a S.M.A.R.T. goal! Are there at least two members registered from your club?

I want to give special recognition to seven clubs in District 24 whose officers had perfect attendance at the Round 1 Toastmasters Leadership Institute (TLI). Each club will receive banner bling (7 for 7) and recognition at the Fall Conference. Congratulations to:

Prime Time Toastmasters Club
Small Talkers
A Toast of Home
Club Fed

Southeast Toasters
Lincoln Toastmasters Club #403
Noonshiners Club

The second round of TLI's will be held this winter in Jan. and Feb. 2012. TLI's are free and open to all members of District 24 and the club officers. The club officers have the opportunity to earn points towards the Distinguished Club Plan (DCP) by attending the TLIs twice a year which helps the club to achieve goal #9. There will be an exciting Distinguished Club Plan contest announced at the Fall Conference. Hint: Try to achieve 5 of 10 DCP goals by December 31 – you will be glad you did!

Reasons to Celebrate

Two new club Charter Parties were celebrated recently. The first party, for Village Voices, was held on Sept. 23. The second party, for Club Oradores Toastmasters, the first bilingual club in District 24, was held on Sept. 29. Both were held in special locations, and included a Club Officer Induction Ceremony, conducted by their respective Area Governors; and the Club Banner Presentation and Club Charter Certificate, as well as Club Member Charter Certificates, presented by District 24 Lt. Gov. Marketing, Kathy Henvey.

Village Voices held their luncheon party at the Hillmer Art Gallery, on the College of Saint Mary campus. The meeting featured a speech entitled "The Many Hats of Toastmasters" presented by club mentor Connie Harwick, who is a member of the Blue Ah Busters Club. Club mentor Steven Brewer served as the Toastmaster. Steven is a charter member of Village Voices and a member of the Noonshiners Club. Special guests were the College President, Dr. Maryanne Stevens; Vice President for Student Development, Dr. Tara Knudsen Carl; Associate Director of Achievement Center, Lisa Johnson, MA; Lt. Gov. Education & Training, Sheri Wells-Chesley; Lt. Gov. Marketing, Kathy Henvey; and Area 33 Governor, Angel Woodard. Dr. Stevens was delighted to have a club on campus, and plans to have the Village Voices Club Charter framed and prominently displayed.

Club Oradores Toastmasters held a dinner potluck party at the home of Anthony Armstrong. Besides being a charter member and sponsor of the club, Anthony also is a member of OPPD Toastmasters and currently serves as Division E Governor. The Toastmaster for the evening was Marcos Rodriguez, and member Brad Pospishil, gave his speech entitled "Si Se Puede!" in Spanish. His Evaluator, Gloria Merizalde, spoke in English and Spanish during her evaluation. Special guests attending were District Governor, LuAnn Anglo; Lt. Gov. Education & Training, Sheri Wells-Chesley; Lt. Gov. Marketing, Kathy Henvey; Division D Governor, Sheila Nelson; and Area 32 Governor, Angela Micucci. Club Oradores Toastmasters' President, Beatriz Gonzalez said, "I have seen over the course of one year, that Club Oradores has helped each member with leadership and speech development. I am honored to see this happen before my eyes."

Because results are still pending from Toastmasters International regarding the Smedley Award winners, cookie distribution to clubs who gained at least five new, reinstated, or dual members during August and September is delayed.

Details of other Marketing promotions will be revealed in November!

Note: District Governor LuAnn Anglo has offered a free manual from the Advanced Communication Series to the first person to e-mail her at d24gov@gmail.com.

MONTHLY SPOTLIGHT: DIVISION B

This month's spotlight highlights District 24's newest Division, which has clubs in Fremont and Omaha. Division B's Area 13 is the "youngest" in the District, with 3 clubs that have chartered in the last 3 years!

Division B Governor Vicki Workman

My name is Vicki Workman and I am a member of Realtalkers in Omaha, Nebraska. I have been a member of Toastmasters since Feb.1, 2008.

On Feb. 1, 2008, I went to a meeting not knowing a thing about Toastmasters. Heck, I had never even heard of Toastmasters. I was "told" I had to join since my job required me to give presentations and speak with physicians. I was sitting at the back of the room observing the meeting. When I left that day I thought to myself, "Oh man, there is no way in the world I can do this!" I also remember my first speech, the Ice Breaker. I can remember standing nervously in the front of the room, voice quivering, hands shaking, rocking back and forth, and feeling like my face was on fire. I was the queen of "ums".

Now, I absolutely love Toastmasters and credit my club, The Realtalkers, for helping me come out of my shell and to be able to stand in from of a large group and speak with confidence. I have earned CC, CL, ACB, and ALB awards. I have served as Sgt at Arms, President, VP Education, and am currently Secretary for my club. I was an Area Governor for 2 years and I am the current Governor for Division B. I am proud to say that I have presided over a President's Distinguished Club and two President's Distinguished Areas! I've come a long way, and if I can do it, you can, too!

I am extremely grateful for Toastmasters and I am looking forward to years of great speeches, great leadership, and developing wonderful friendships.

The Traffic Citation

This man was driving with his wife and mother-in-law when he was stopped by the Highway Patrol. When the man rolled down his window the officer said, "We've been trying to encourage better driving habits in this state, so we've been stopping our most courteous drivers and giving them awards for their superior driving skills. It's my pleasure to present you with this citation and a check for $100."

"Wow," said the man who was very impressed with the award. The officer asked, "Just out of curiosity, how do you think you'll spend the money."

The man answered, "Well, now that I can afford it, I think I'll go and get my driver's license, perhaps even some auto insurance." His wife was stunned, and said, "Don't mind him, officer. He ALWAYS says ridiculous things when he's been drinking." This really angered the mother-in-law who said "I knew it! I just knew something like this would happen. I TOLD you we wouldn't get far in this stolen car!"

Be Ten

When Tom Colling accepted the role of Area Governor, he couldn't help but draw a similarity between District 24 creating Area B10 and the Nebraska Cornhuskers joining the Big Ten. And Tom knew the Huskers planned to blaze into the Big Ten in a big way, hopefully by winning their division. So when it came to Area B10, he did what any self-respecting Husker fan would do...he dreamed big! Tom challenged the three clubs in his area—the ConAgra Foods Chatter Platters, Realtalkers and Small Talkers—to “Be Ten”.

In the July edition of his area newsletter, Tom wrote, “I challenge each club of B10 to Be Ten this year. The Distinguished club program (DCP) has ten goals. Last year, there were four clubs in District 24 to achieve all ten of these goals. Let's set our goals high - let's plan for each of our clubs to reach this pinnacle of success. Let's Be Ten.” Tom encouraged the clubs to live up to the area's name.

Tom Colling, Area B10 Gov., publishes the Be Ten Newsletter quarterly.

How's the challenge going so far? “Great!” says Tom. “ConAgra Foods Chatter Platters already have three DCP goals achieved, and Realtalkers and Small Talkers both have one goal achieved but are on track for several more.” Tom doesn't know if the clubs will achieve all 10 DCP goals this year, but says that was not the point of his challenge. “All the clubs in Area B10 were Distinguished or better last year, and I wanted to motivate them to keep achieving a high level of success.”

How about the rest of the clubs in District 24? Will any of you Be Ten this year?

A Rebuilding Year

Area B12 Governor Amie Mertens refers to this year as her Area's rebuilding year. Just as sports teams experience ups and downs, so, too, do many of our clubs when it comes to membership numbers. Four of the five clubs in Area B12 have fewer than 20 members, and three of the clubs are low-member clubs.

“I am meeting with Club Presidents and VPs of Education quarterly to follow-up on their concerns and progress. I am doing my High Performance Leadership project on my Area's marketing/advertising strategies. We've got great club coaches assigned,” Amie says, “but what is amazing is that there are very enthusiastic toastmasters that are excited to work on projects and focus on improvement”.

Amie feels that Area B12 can work as one big team instead of clubs working alone. For example, Club Fed held a special meeting recently and invited their bosses to attend. Club Fed members invited Toastmasters outside of their club to have roles at the meeting, which ended up being an exciting, full meeting! Be sure to watch for updates on Area B12's progress in the Double Dozen.

Mastering Table Topics

Everybody loves to be Table Topic Master, right? It means that YOU are the one who gets to come up with an appropriate number of diabolical questions, then scan the room looking for anyone foolish enough to make eye contact or trying to hide behind the person sitting next to them!

Hopefully we all realize that nothing is gained by posing questions requiring specialized technical knowledge, or which could result in an embarrassing response. While striving for variety in Table Topics questions is a good thing, it should be kept in mind that the real purpose of Table Topics is to provide a speaking opportunity to members without an assigned speaking duty.

The following are some ideas for subject matter for Table Topics questions:

- Discussion of community problems or issues
- Personal experiences
- Unexpected challenges
- Pro and con subject matter discussion (debate format)
- Special occasions / events / holidays
- “What if” situations

An internet Google search of the phrase ‘Table Topics’ will yield lots of additional ideas.

When you are the Topic Master, take note of who does not have an assigned duty, and jot their names down on the Table Topics meeting duty sheet. Then, depending on the time available, select your table topics speakers from your list. While it may not always be possible when three speakers are on the program (an enviable problem to have), our goal should always be to include everybody in that day’s program.

Since Table Topics can be a challenge for both new and experienced members, the following guidelines for impromptu speaking may be helpful when you are on the receiving end:

1. Decide instantly upon a clear and definite point of view on the subject and state what it is.
2. Justify the point of view with two or three specific reasons.
3. Illustrate your point of view in terms of your own experience or of someone you know.
4. Conclude with a summary and perhaps with a qualification, since in the time you have been speaking, you may realize there are other considerations you did not initially think of.
5. If you are stumped or uninformed about the topic, try to think of some other aspect of the topic that you can provide some thoughts or opinions.

While Table Topics may be the one exception to “practice makes perfect”, applying the rules of engagement above and building stage time will make it a much less intimidating task.

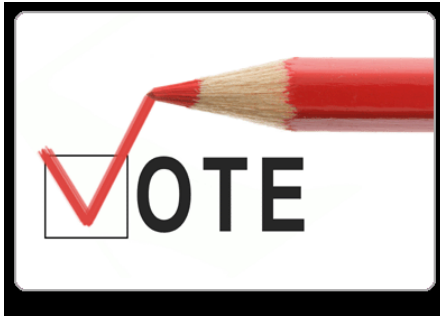

Tom Brodecky, ATMB, is a long-time member of NPPD Toastmasters Club #1029 and is currently serving as Sergeant-At-Arms. Tom credits an old article from the Toastmaster Magazine with the five points of his article, but he won’t admit just how old an article because then he’d be dating himself.

Time to Elect Officers?

According to club by-laws, officers are either elected annually or semi-annually. If your club elects officers semiannually, it's not too early to think about upcoming elections. Here's a helpful timetable from Toastmasters International:

- Before September 30: Appoint a nominating committee (see club bylaws). The committee is to be run by the immediate past president or the most recent past president available.
- Last Meeting in October: The nominating committee reports to the club.
- First Meeting in November: Call for the nominating committee Report. (If the nominating committee does not have a report at the last meeting in October, postpone the election until one week after the meeting at which the report is given.)
- Call for nominations from the floor: Nominations begin with the last president and proceed in descending order. Remember, a quorum is 51 percent of active members.
- Announce the results.

All clubs must be on a July 1– June 30 annual term, or on July 1– December 31 and January 1–June 30 semiannual terms. (Please note: Clubs that meet weekly have the option of electing officers for either a semiannual term or an annual term. Clubs that meet less frequently must elect officers for annual terms.) Holding elections at any other time is in direct conflict with the club constitution. If your elections are not in compliance with the timetable, now is the time to change!

Once the officers have been elected, access the Club Central section and add your club's officers online!
